

Helen's practice covers all areas of family law work.

Helen became a tenant of Harcourt Chambers after successful completion of her pupillage in 2008.

Prior to coming to the Bar Helen worked as an Immigration and Asylum adviser.

Public Law Children

In public law proceedings Helen regularly acts for Local Authorities across Thames Valley, Oxfordshire, and Buckinghamshire. She is also instructed on behalf of parents, relatives, Guardians, competent children, and the Official Solicitor. She has experience in complex public law cases that involve non-accidental injuries, sexual abuse/exploitation, and international elements.

Private Law Children

In private law proceedings, Helen has represented parents, grandparents, and rule 16.4 Guardians. Helen has experience in international relocation cases, and applications for leave to remove temporarily from the jurisdiction (including to countries that are not signatories to the Hague Convention).
