

Kate Ferguson

Call: 2016

Kate practises in public and private law children cases. Kate is known for her meticulous preparation and is highly regarded for her robust, calm and approachable manner. She has particular experience in representing vulnerable clients and taking on cases of a complex nature.

Kate acts in all levels of court having appeared in the High Court on numerous occasions. She has appeared in the Court of Appeal as a led junior on behalf of a Local Authority and successfully argued for the dismissal of an appeal against findings of sexual abuse.

As a led junior Kate has also represented a Children's Guardian in a three week fact finding hearing involving complex allegations of harm.

Prior to joining Chambers, Kate worked as a paralegal in a specialist family law firm and Local Authority legal department gaining a wide range of experience in both public and private law children work.

Public Law Children

Kate has a busy practice in public law children representing Local Authorities, parents, children, grandparents and interveners.

Kate has a wide range of experience in matters which involve issues such as drug and alcohol problems, neglect, physical and emotional harm and mental health difficulties.

Kate also has experience in complex cases involving allegations of sexual abuse and fictitious or induced injury.
