

Louis Tavaré studied Politics and East European Studies at UCL, graduating with First Class Honours, before completing the Graduate Diploma in Law with Distinction. Prior to joining Chambers, Louis worked as a paralegal at specialist family law firm Creighton & Partners, where he gained extensive experience in children cases, working with parents, guardians, local authorities and children directly. He previously undertook a mini-pupillage at Harcourt and has experience across both public and private children work. Louis was also the winner of the University of Law's Plea in Mitigation Competition in 2025.
