

Rosie Shouler-Harris

Call: 2024

Rosie Shouler-Harris joined Harcourt Chambers as a pupil in October 2024. Her pupillage is supervised by Vicky Reynolds, Prof Rob George and Matthew Stott.

Prior to pupillage, Rosie worked as an Early Help Independent Domestic Violence Advocate. She is experienced in supporting individuals and families facing care proceedings and private children's proceedings, domestic abuse, rape and sexual abuse and emotional abuse.

Rosie originally studied Human Rights at The London School of Economics before converting to law. During her postgraduate and legal studies, Rosie volunteered as a legal researcher at a human rights non-governmental organisation and assisted with the drafting of an application to the ECtHR regarding breaches of Article 8, 13 and 14 of the convention.

Rosie previously volunteered as a mental health crisis volunteer for a charity.
